

Polling Places for Cibola County now becoming a Hybrid County, what does that mean for voters?

The Cibola County Clerk's Office is pleased to announce that registered voters in Cibola County, who reside in the following Precincts listed below will now have the opportunity to vote at any three Voting Convenient Centers starting with the Primary Election to be held June 5, 2018 and future elections:

Precincts

007	San Rafael Elementary
008	Grants High School
009	Mt. Taylor Elementary
010	Grants CAP Office/Senior Center
011	Los Alamos Middle School
012	Future Foundations Family Center
013	Grants City Hall
014	Febco Fire Station
015	Milan Parks & Recreation Center
016	NMSU Grants Branch
019	Old Cibola County Complex

Voting Convenient Centers:

Site 1: Old Cibola County Complex, Grants, NM 87020

Site 2: Mt. Taylor Elementary School, Grants, NM 87020

Site 3: Milan Parks & Recreation, Milan, NM 87020

The County Clerk's Office decided to switch to a Hybrid County for many reasons, one reason being to save on the cost of ballots that are ordered for Elections. What that means for voters who reside within the City of Grants and in the Milan area will now have the ability to vote at any Voting Convenient Center listed above.

Polling Places in rural areas unfortunately don't have the option to vote at any Voting Convenient Center at this time, they will stay traditional and voters will vote at their normal polling place on Election Day:

Precincts

001	Fence Lake Community Center
002	Seboyeta Elementary School
003	San Mateo Fire Station
004	Bluewater Senior Center
005	Ramah Chapter House
006	Bluewater Acres Fire Station
